

CLIENT PROFILE

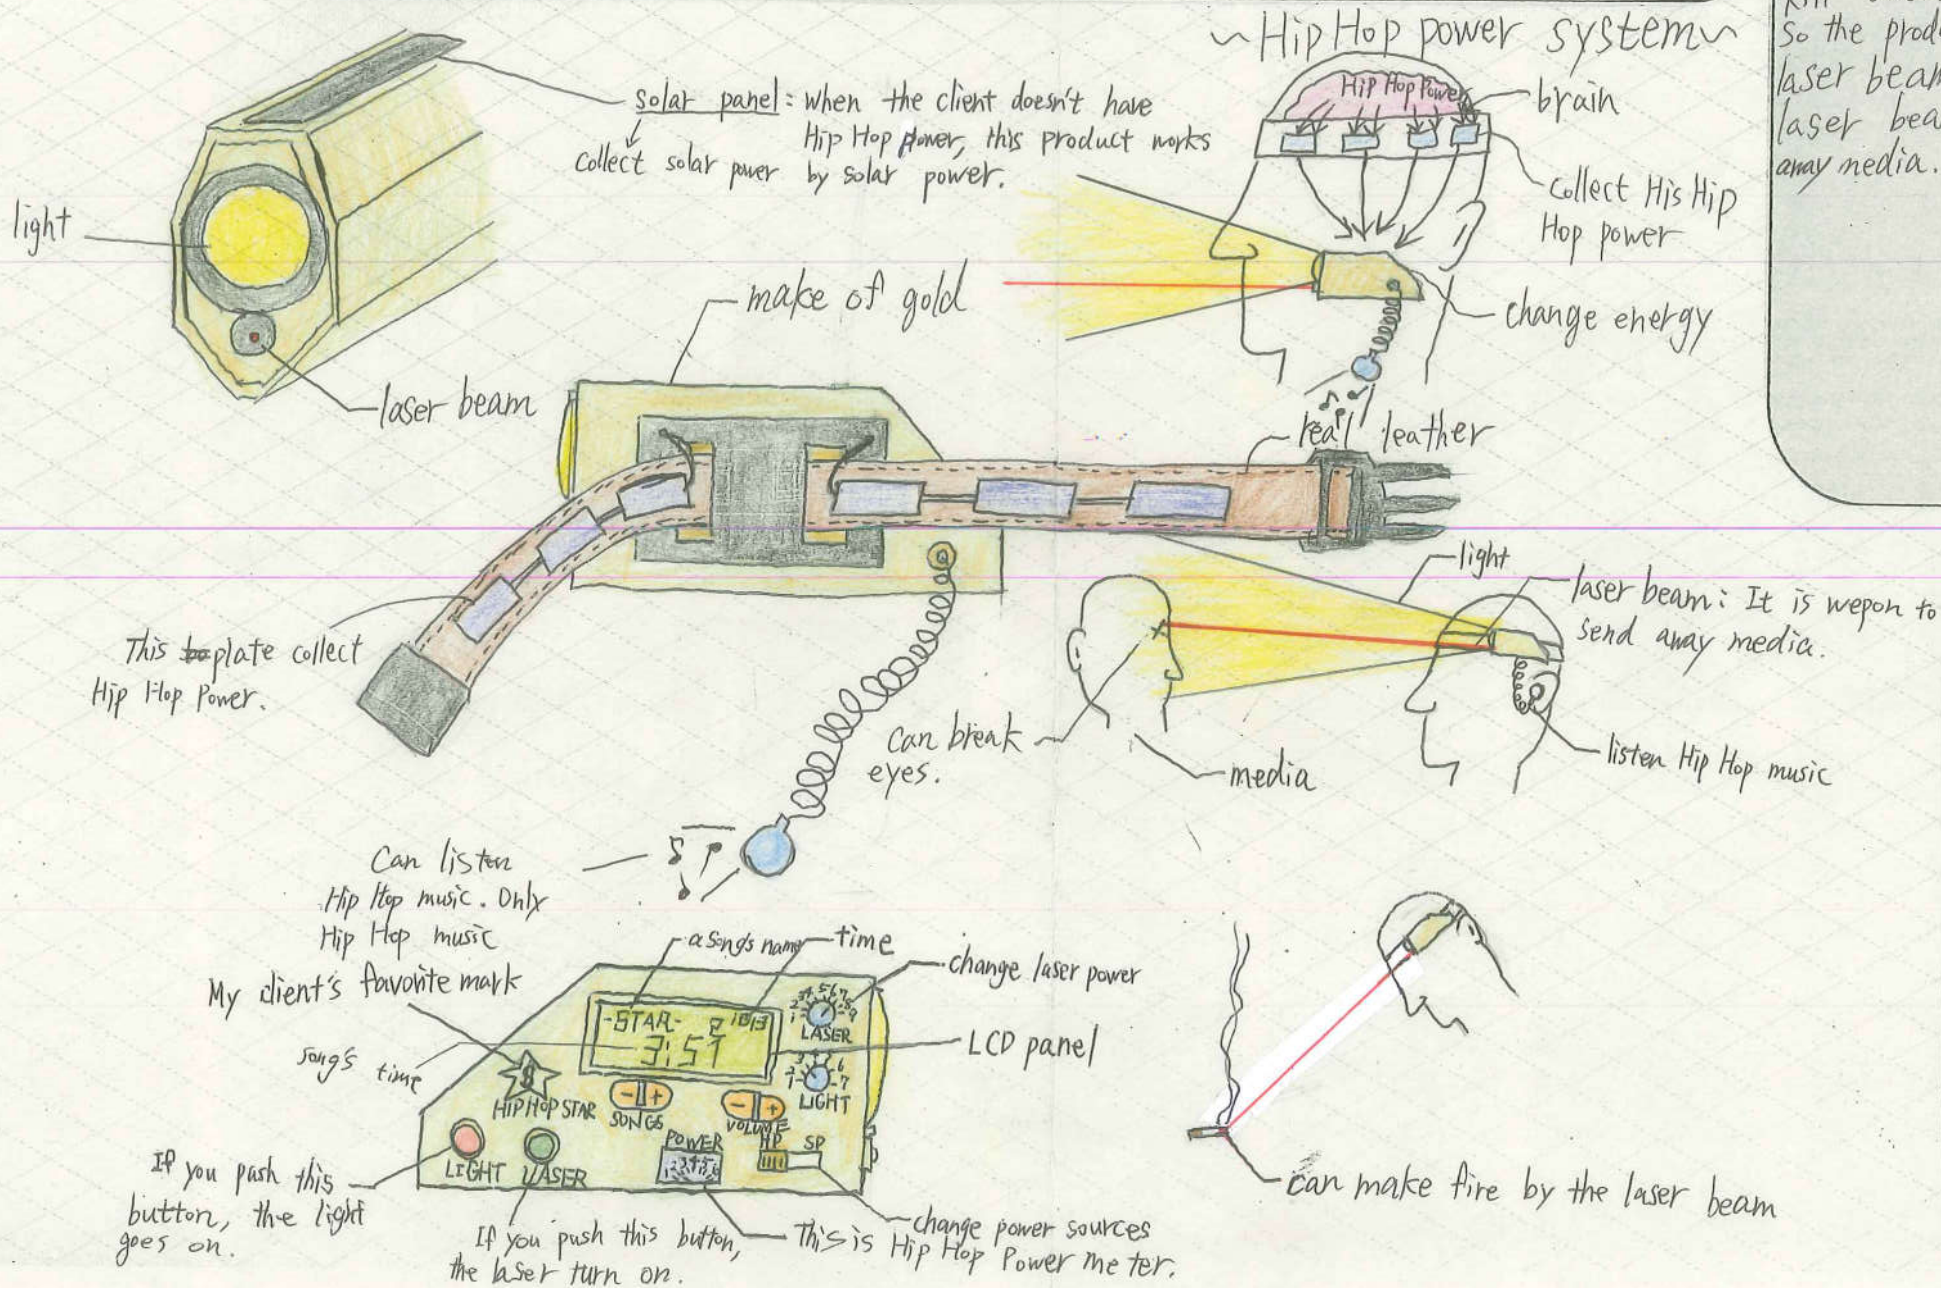

My client is Hip Hop star. His job is dancing. He is good at not only dancing but also talking, so he works at radio station as radio personality until 4:30 a.m. everyday, so he goes home late. He usually goes to radio station by his car, but his car sometimes breaks, so he has to go there on foot then, but it is dark outside when he goes home, so he feels danger and scaring. He wants a source of light which he uses then.

He is popular and famous, so he is chased by media everyday. He is very tired, and gets angry with them. He wants send away them.

He likes smoking, but he doesn't have good lighter. He wants a product to make a fire. His favorite color is gold. He wears the gold accessories whose shape is star.

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

I will make a special head light. It works by my client's "Hip Hop power" and solar power. Usually, it works by "Hip Hop power", but when he doesn't have the power, it works by solar power. It doesn't use electric power, so it is an eco-friendly product. Its color is gold, because his favorite color is gold. My client uses the product on way to home. He is free then. He wants to kill time. He can listen to Hip Hop music by the product to kill time. My client likes smoking, so the product can make fire by the laser beam. The product has storing laser beam. It is a weapon to send away media.
