

Client Profile

My client is a soldier.
He is Mike. He is 28 years old.
He has 190 cm tall and 100 kg. He has the most physical strength in the army.

He fights on the battle field every day. He has different battle field every month. For example, in January he fights in jungle, like this. So he is very busy.

He has two hobbies. One hobby is to talk with his team mates. He often eat lunch with his team mates. Lunch is not very delicious but to talk them makes lunch better. Another hobby is to take pictures. He always bring his favorite camera.

RUCK BED

The name is "Ruck Bed." Because it can both of "Ruck sack" and "Bed." In the noon, when he fights on the battle field it becomes "Ruck Sack," but at night when he sleeps it becomes "Bed." Ruck Bed has some fasteners. When he opens all fasteners, it expand and it's "Bed." Ruck Bed has two points.

I. It is soft and strong.

Ruck Bed is a five-tier. From the top, nylon, cotton, cushion, cotton, nylon. Nylon can protect him from rain, wind and snow. Cotton can make his body warm. Cushion can keep prototype.

II. Reversible

Ruck Bed is reversible. One side is brownish camouflagé. He'll use it when he fights in the city. Another side is greenish camouflagé. He'll use it when he'll use it in jungle.

III. So Big

"Ruck Bed" is so big. $2.2 \text{ m} \times 0.5 \text{ m}$. So though he is a big man he can sleep comfortably.
